The Banking and Finance Oath

Founded in 2010, The Banking and Finance Oath (commonly referred to as The BFO) is a Hippocratic type oath for those working in the banking and finance industry. The BFO is founded on a shared belief in the inherent 'good' of the banking and finance industry and is an effort to re-assert the ethical foundation of the industry beyond regulation and compliance, by broadening expectations and discussions to include ethics, integrity and trust. The BFO was founded in Australia and now has Signatories worldwide.
